

5th Grade Summer Reading:

For the summer reading assignment, upcoming 5th graders will be required to read the book Frindle, by Andrew Clements. The assignment will be project-based and counted as a test grade when they return to school. Points will be deducted for projects that are not turned in on time.

Assignment for novel:

There are four projects (attached) for your child to choose from. Please have your child complete one of the projects and bring it back on the first day of school. The rubrics are on the back of each page. We will be sharing these projects in class during the first two weeks of school.

Happy reading and have a great summer!

Dear Diary

Step into the mind of one of the main characters in your novel. Put yourself "in their shoes" and imagine what they think and how they feel about the events and other characters in the novel.

Create a Character Diary from the perspective of one of the main characters in your novel.

Include the following details in your character's diary.

- Responses to at least FIVE major events in the novel.
 - How were you involved in the event?
 - Did you want to be involved?
- Were you a major part of the event or a bystander?
 - How did you feel about the events?
 - What emotions were you experiencing?
- What are your thoughts on the other characters?
 - How does the setting impact you?
 - What are your hopes / dreams / secrets?

Don't forget to write in 1st Person.

The diary is from your character's perspective.

Design a cover for your Character Diary and attach your entries behind it.

Try to design a cover that best reflects your character.

- Would your diary be hand-written or typed?
- Would you have a fancy diary or a plain one?
- Relate your diary's cover as much as possible to the personality of the character, the themes, mood and setting of the novel.

Novel Art Works

As an artistic and creative person you know the importance of symbols and symbolism in a novel. As you read through your novel look for symbols, icons and items that represent the themes, mood, characters, conflict or setting.

Create a piece of artwork that represents your novel or an aspect of your novel. Think creatively and have fun expressing yourself in a different way.

Ideas For Artwork

Painting
Sculpture
Diorama
Collage
Model
Carving

Idea of your choice...

Once you have completed your artwork, please write a one-two page description of your art and what it represents.

Include the following information in your write-up.

Why did you present your information this way?

What did you incorporate from the novel into your art?

What symbols from the novel did you incorporate?

What do the symbols represent? How do the symbols relate to the theme?

How do you think your artwork represents the novel's big ideas?

- A main article that covers a major aspect of the novel—the main conflict, the main characters etc.
- At least one other small article that relates to the novel

Helpful Hints

- Remember, newspapers are written in 3rd Person - don't use "I" or "me" except when directly quoting someone
- Newspapers answer the questions—who, what, where, when and why??
- Remember, your task is to report on the details, however you can add extra details not covered in the book to enhance your work.
- Interview a minor character for their perspective on the events in the novel.
- Report on one or two major incidents in the novel rather than trying to cover all aspects of the book.
- Include extras such as classifieds, current events, editorial, sports, or a travel section that are appropriate to the setting and to the novel if you have space and time.
